SUBDIVISION RESTRICTIONS AND RESERVATIONS FOR PORT ADVENTURE.
SECTION EIGHT A RURAL SUBDIVISION

Covenants not enforced

STATE OF TEXAS

KNOWN TO ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS

COUNTY OF TRINITY

That, Port Adventure, Inc., a Texas corporation, acting herein by and through its duly authorized officers, therein called "Developer", owner of all that certain tract of land being 120.51 acres out of the B. De Los Santos Coy, A-133, Issac Aldridge, A-67, John W. Chessher, A-916 and the E. B. Loftin Survey, A-801, and being a portion of the 266.474 acre tract titled to Port Adventure, Inc., by the deed recorded in Volume 382, Page 759 of the official records of Trinity County, Texas did, on August 25, 1987, impress, all of the property included in such subdivision with the following restrictions, as shown of record in the County Clerk's Office of Trinity County, Texas at Vol. 389, page 229, et seq., Official Records of Trinity County, Texas; and

WHEREAS, said Original Restrictions, provided, at Vol. 389, page 240, provided no method to amend the deed restrictions by the property owners, only the right to annul the property owners, and only provided for the Developer to have the right to amend the Original Restrictions through January 31, 1997, said Original Restrictions providing as follows:

The covenants and restrictions of this declaration shall run with and bind the land for a term of forty years from the date this declaration is recorded after which time they shall be automatically extended for successive periods of ten years, unless a simple majority of the then owners elect to annul the restrictions. The developer reserves the right to amend these restrictions through January 31, 1997, as he in his discretion finds it necessary for the benefit of the development or his own best interest;

WHEREAS, Chapter 211 of the Texas Property Code became effective on September 1, 2005, and provided for the amendment of deed restrictions by property owners in subdivisions where the deed restrictions did not provide for a method and/or procedure to amend the deed restrictions:

and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 211.004 of the Texas Property Code, on May 13, 2010, by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors, an election to adopt a procedure to amend the deed restrictions for Section 8 was approved by the Board of Directors, with the date of the Chapter 211 election to be on June 19, 2010; and

WHEREAS, the ballots for adopting an amendment procedure were canvassed and counted on June 19, 2010, where a total of 28 votes were cast, 21 of which votes were in favor of the following amendment procedure for the deed restrictions for Section 8, being more than the required 2/3 vote for adoption of such amendment procedure:

The members of the Port Adventure Property Owner's Association shall have the right at any time hereafter to amend the deed restrictions applicable to Section Eight of the Port Adventure Subdivision, which restrictions were filed of record at Vol. 389, page 229, et seq., of the Official Records of Trinity County, Texas, by a majority vote of the members of the Association voting in favor of such amendment to any or all of the restrictions, conditions, and covenants applicable to Section Eight of the Port Adventure Subdivision, by the members of the association at a special or annual meeting at which a quorum is had, with each member who is not delinquent in payment of maintenance fees being entitled to one (1) vote for all lots owned in Section Eight; and

WHEREAS, the election canvassing committee chairperson, by execution of this documents, has certified the result to the presiding officer of the property owners' association, which certification was filed November 12, 2010 in the Official Public Records of Trinity County, Texas at Vol. 866, pages 740, et seq.;

NOW THEREFORE, the following Restated and Amended Restrictions are presented to the property owners of Port Adventure Subdivision, Section Eight, of Trinity County, Texas for a vote of the members, pursuant to the provisions of Section 211.004:

Restrictions

1. These covenants are to run with the land and shall be binding upon all parties and all persons claiming under them until January 1, 2020 A.D., at which time said covenants shall be automatically extended for successive periods of Ten (10) years unless amended as provided herein: The members of the Port Adventure Property Owner's Association shall have the right at any time hereafter to amend the deed restrictions applicable to Section Eight of the Port Adventure Subdivision, which restrictions were filed of record at Vol. 389, page 229, et seq., of the Official Records of Trinity County, Texas, by a majority vote of the members of the Association voting in favor of such amendment to any or all of the restrictions, conditions, and covenants applicable to Section Eight of the Port Adventure Subdivision, by the members of the association at a special or annual meeting at which a quorum is had, with each member who is not delinquent in payment of maintenance fees being entitled to one (1) vote for all lots owned in Section Eight.

2. Enforcement of Deed Restrictions.

- (a) Subject to the provisions of the (d) of this paragraph, if any person or entity, as defined hereinafter, whether or not lawfully in possession of any real property hereunder, shall either (i) violate or attempt to violate any restriction or provision herein or (ii) suffer to be violated (with respect to the real property in which such person or entity has rights other than the rights granted by this sentence) any restriction or provision herein, it shall be lawful for the Association and/or any person or entity, as defined hereinafter, possessing rights with respect to any real property hereunder, to prosecute any proceedings at law or in equity against any such person or entity violating, attempting to violate and/or suffering to be violated any restriction or provision herein to (i) prevent such violation, (ii) recover damages of other dues for such violation, and (iii) recover court costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred in such proceedings. "Person or entity", as used in the immediately preceding sentence hereof, shall include, but shall not be limited to, all owners and purchasers of any real property hereunder, as well as all heirs, devisees, assignees, legal representatives and other persons or entities who acquire any of the rights (with respect to the real property hereunder) of the owner or purchaser of any real property hereunder.
- (b) The Association has the right, but not the exclusive duty, to take action to enforce any violation of these deed restrictions.
- (c) Neither the directors nor officers of the Association, shall have any liability or responsibility at law nor in equity on account of the enforcement of, or on account of the failure to enforce, these restrictions. An exercise of discretionary authority by the Association concerning a restrictive covenant is presumed reasonable unless the court determines by a preponderance of the evidence that the exercise of discretionary authority was arbitrary, capricious, or discriminatory.

- (d) Notwithstanding any other provisions hereof, the Association shall not be liable nor subject to any proceeding at law or in equity on account of any violation or attempted violation of any restriction or provision herein which occurs during such time as there is in force a contract to purchase the property where such violation or attempted violation takes place.
- 3. No building shall be erected, placed or altered on any building or mobile home tract in this Subdivision until the plans, specifications, and plat plans showing the location of such building or mobile home and skirting have been approved in writing as to conformity and harmony of external design with the existing structures in the Subdivision, and as to location with respect to topography and finished ground elevation by the Association, or by a representative designated by the Association. The Board of Directors shall have the authority to develop, adopt and enforce architectural guidelines, by resolution duly adopted, which architectural guidelines shall be filed of record with the County Clerk of Trinity County, Texas.

13. Removal of Non-Conforming Campers or Structures: In the event of default on the part of the owner or occupant of any lot in observing the requirements of these restrictions and/or the requirements of the Architectural Control Committee and with such default continuing after ten (10) days written notice the Association, acting through the Board of Directors, without liability to the owner or occupant in trespass, damage or otherwise, enter upon said lot and remove the Camper, Mobile Homes or other structures in default. The owner or occupant, as the case may be, agrees by the purchase or occupation of the property to pay the cost of such removal and any storage fees immediately upon the receipt of a statement thereof. The mailing of ten (10) days notice to the address shown on Owner's contract of Sale shall be deemed to be full by the Association of its duty to notify in writing set out hereinabove.
14. All recreational vehicles, mobile homes and modular homes or any nature must be approved in writing by the Association as to its size, condition, appearance and sanitary facilities, before installation on a lot in this Subdivision.

15. All lots in Section Eight of Port Adventure excepting those designated for campers shall be used for single family residential purposes and each lot shall be limited to one dwelling. The term "residential purposes" as used herein shall be held and construed to exclude hospitals, clinics, duplex houses, apartment houses, boarding houses, hotels and other or any commercial or business purposes large or small as all such uses of said property are hereby expressly prohibited. No building shall be erected, altered, placed or permitted to remain on any residential tract or lot other than on detached single-family dwelling and private garage. No property shall be rented or leased without a written agreement. Any rental or lease of property must be for a period of time of at least NINETY (90) days. Any rental or lease shall provide, in writing, that the renter or lessee has received a copy of the Deed Restrictions and agrees to be bound by same and comply with all Deed Restrictions. Rental or lease of the lot and residence shall not relieve the property owner from compliance with these Deed Restrictions.
16. No noxious or offensive activity shall be carried on upon any lot nor shall anything be done thereon which may be an annoyance or nuisance to the neighborhood or the Subdivision as a whole. Outdoor burning of tree limbs, grass, leaves, or other paper or wood products is permitted. Residents must comply with any local burn bans that may be in effect and should always practice fire safety. Burning of toxic materials is strictly prohibited.
17. No animals, livestock, poultry, or exotic animals, birds or pets of any kind shall be raised, bred or kept on any lots in Port Adventure, except that dogs, cats, and other normal household pets may be kept, provided the number is kept at a minimal in proportion of the size lot and not kept, maintained, or bred for any commercial purposes of any kind. Household pets of an unusual or extraordinary nature are prohibited. Dogs are not allowed to run loose in the subdivision.
18. Signs shall not be displayed to the public view. Signs shall only be permitted on the lots in this subdivision as authorized by Section 202.009 of the Texas Property Code, as may be amended from time to time by the Texas Legislature. A property owner shall have the right to display "for sale" signs for the sale of their home and/or lot, provided that the sign does not exceed 2' x 3', and further provided that the sign is to be removed within thirty (30) days

- after sale. A property owners shall be entitled to display "vendor" or "contractor" signs, but any such signs shall be removed within thirty (30) days of completion of the work. Nothing herein is intended to prevent a property owners from posting a "No Trespassing" sign.
19. No oil drilling, oil development operations, oil refining, quarrying or mining operations of any kind shall be permitted upon any lot or tract, nor shall oil wells, tanks, tunnels, mineral excavations or shafts be permitted upon any lot or tract. No derrick or any other structure designed for use in boring for oil or natural gas shall be erected or maintained on any part of any lot.
 20. No detached improvement shall be erected or maintained on any part of any tract forward of the front building line of any lot or tract.
 21. No boats, trailers, trucks, truck campers or camper tops may be parked in-front of the front building line of any lot or tract.
 22. The operation of mechanical vehicles, including but not limited to bicycles, motorcycles, golf carts, all terrain vehicles, cars or trucks shall be permitted only on roadways in the Subdivision. No go-carts, minibikes, and/or three wheelers shall be permitted to be ridden in the Subdivision.
 23. All lots must be neatly maintained, kept free of all trash, rubbish, garbage, material of any unsightly nature and mowed. This shall be the responsibility of each lot owner and if not adhered to, will be handled by the Association at the lot owners expense. No lot may be used for the storage of material or equipment except when necessary for normal residential requirements or for the Association's approved construction of improvements on the lots. All clothes lines, yard equipment or storage piles shall be kept screened by a service yard, drying yard or similar facility so as to conceal them from view of neighboring lots, streets or other properties. In the event of default on the part of the owner of any lot in observing the above requirements, and if such default continues after thirty (30) days written notice thereof, the Association may take action to correct the default. The Association, or others authorized by the Association, may cut weeds and grass, remove garbage, trash and rubbish or do any other thing necessary to secure compliance with these Restrictions, so as to place said lot in a neat, attractive, and sanitary condition. There will be no liability associated with this action. The defaulting owner will be charged for the reasonable cost of such work and associated materials. The owner agrees with the purchase of a lot in the Port Adventure subdivision to pay such statement immediately upon receipt. If the statement is not paid within thirty (30) days of the date due, then said amount shall accrue interest at the rate of ten (10%) per cent per annum. The payment of such charge is secured by the same lien on the property in question, which secures the charge for such work, the interest accrued, and legal fees and related costs in prosecuting and collecting said amount. Said lien shall only be judicially foreclosed.

24. The cutting and removal of any tree on any lot in the Subdivision for commercial purposes is expressly prohibited without the written consent of the Association.
25. (a) Each owner of property in the Subdivision shall be liable for a minimum maintenance charge of $7.50 per month for each lot owned, payable to the Port Adventure Property Owners Association, to be paid by the owners of each lot and same to be secured by a vendor's lien upon such lots. Such sum shall be paid at the time of the purchase of a lot and on the first day of each month thereafter to the Association. Funds arising from said charge will be applied so far as is sufficient toward the payment of maintenance expenses or construction costs incurred for any or all of the following purposes: lighting, improving and maintaining the streets and right-a-ways, security devices or watchman, garbage and trash collection, and doing any other things necessary or desirable in the opinion of said Board of Directors to keep the property neat and in good order and which it considers of general benefit to the owners or occupants of the Subdivision. It shall be understood that the judgement of said Association in expenditure of said funds shall be final so long as such judgement is exercised in good faith. All conveyance of lots shall be subject to such maintenance charge and by acceptance of his deed of contract for deed, each purchaser consents and acknowledges that said Association shall have no obligation to furnish maintenance, or do any other things described in this restriction other than from Maintenance Funds.
- (b) The maintenance charge herein provided is hereby declared to be second and inferior and a second lien to any vendor's lien, materialman's and mechanic's lien, Deed of Trust lien, or other security for the payment of any lot in said subdivision, or for improvements made on any lot therein, and such vendor's lien, materialman's and mechanic's lien, Deed of Trust lien or such other security, made, given or retained therefore, together with any extension or successive extension thereof shall be and is hereby declared to be a first lien until such time as final payment thereof has been fully made.

- (c) The amount of the annual maintenance fee may be adjusted as shall be determined by a majority vote of the members, represented in person or by proxy, of the Association at the May member's meeting of the Association, at which a quorum of the members, represented in person or by proxy, is obtained. Notice shall be given to all lot owners for such May member's meeting of the proposed annual maintenance fee to be determined for the next fiscal year, which will become effective on January 1 of the next fiscal year. In the event the proposed maintenance fee fails to obtain the necessary votes at the annual meeting, then the maintenance fee for the next fiscal year shall remain at the same amount as then currently set, but in no event to be less than Seven dollars and fifty cents ($7.50) per month. Said assessments shall be in the form of a covenant to run with the ownership of the said lots.
- (d) If lot owners sell any portion of their land, they are to notify the Association, within ten (10) days of the sale, of the name and address of the buyer so that the aforesaid assessments may be collected from the new owner.
- (e) All conveyances of lots shall be subject to such maintenance charge and by acceptance of his deed or contract for deed, each purchaser consents and acknowledges that the Association shall have no obligation to furnish maintenance or do any other thing described in this paragraph other than from maintenance funds.
- (F) Maintenance fees not paid by January 31 will be charged a collection fee of $10.00 per month per lot, or as may be otherwise established by the Board of Directors by resolution duly adopted. Current maintenance fee is $7.50 per lot per month.

26. All commercial vehicles with more than 5 axles are prohibited from parking in the subdivision whether in common areas, roadways, or private drives. This restriction does not prohibit occasional and temporary parking that is necessitated by certain pick-up or delivery or large items or building materials on vehicles in the subdivision.
27. (a) Each person(s) acquiring a lot or residential dwelling in the Port Adventure Subdivision shall automatically become a member of Port Adventure Property Owners' Association, a non-profit Texas Corporation formed for the benefit of the property owners of the Port Adventure Subdivision, and the Property Owners Association shall be a property owners association as defined by the Texas Property Code. Each member will abide by the rules of the corporation and the covenants and restrictions set forth in this document. The Association shall have the right, but not the sole responsibility, and authority to uphold these restrictions and covenants, and provide for the maintenance and upkeep for the common areas of the subdivision. The Association, by and through its Board of Directors, shall have the authority to appoint such committees as determined by the Board of Directors to be in the best interest of the Association.
- (b) Any lot owner who brings a lawsuit against the Association alleging a violation of any duty of the Association to enforce the deed restriction, or alleging that the Association, or any director, officer and/or agent of the Association, shall be liable to the Association for any legal fees and costs incurred in defending such lawsuit.
- (c) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, nothing herein or in the plats above referenced shall be deemed, interpreted or construed as imposing any obligation or obligations whatever upon the Association, and the Association shall not be liable under any provisions hereof or thereof for any charge, assessment, breach, act or omission to act.
28. Partial invalidation of any covenant or restriction, by court judgment or otherwise, shall not effect, in any way, the validity of all other covenants, restrictions, reservations and conditions, all of which shall remain in full force and effect. Acquiescence, regardless of time involved, in any violation shall not be deemed a waiver of the right to enforce against the violator or others the conditions and covenants so violated or any other conditions; the Association shall have the right to require that the same be corrected, and recover cost of any actions necessary to enforce corrections, including but not limited to attorney's fees. Any court ordered award of attorney's fees incurred for prosecution such violation shall be secured by a lien against the property of the property owner found by a court to be in violation of these deed restrictions. Gazebos or small buildings intended for storage of lawn furniture, equipment or similar use must be complimentary to the architectural style of the residence on the property. All such buildings must be approved by the architectural committee prior to erection.

These 2011 Restated and Amended Subdivision Restrictions and Reservations for Port Adventure Section Eight, A Rural Subdivision" were approved by the a majority vote of the members of the Port Adventure Property Owners' Association, a Texas non-profit corporation, at a special meeting of the members held on March 19, 2011, pursuant to the Chapter 211 amendment procedure adopted by the members referenced above, and these 2011 Restated and Amended Subdivision Restrictions and Reservations for Port Adventure Section Eight, A Rural Subdivision".

Amendments to the 2011 Stated and Amended Deed Restrictions for Section Eight of Port Adventure POA

At the Members Meeting to be held on 8 August 2020, the following amendments were passed to the 2011 Stated and Amended Deed Restrictions for Section 8:

Paragraph 17 page 8 originally reads:

No animals, livestock, poultry, or exotic animals, birds or pets of any kind shall be raised, bred or kept on any lots in Port Adventure, except that dogs, cats and other normal household pets may be kept, provided the number is kept at a minimal in proportion of the size lot and not kept, maintained, or bred for any commercial purpose of any kind. Household pets of an unusual or extraordinary nature are prohibited. Dogs are not allowed to run loose in the subdivision.

Was amended to read:

No animals, livestock, poultry, exotic animals, birds or pets of any kind shall be raised, bred or kept on any lots in Port Adventure with the exception of egg laying hens, dogs, cats and other household pets. Egg laying hens (no roosters allowed) will be limited to a maximum of ten (10) per owner on lots adjacent to a full time residence and must be kept in cages. Dogs, cats, chickens and other normal household pets may be kept, provided the number is kept at a minimal in proportion of the size of lot and not kept, maintained or bred for any commercial purposes of any kind. Household pets of an unusual or extraordinary nature are prohibited. Dogs and chickens are not allowed to run loose in the subdivision.

Paragraph 25, subsection (a) originally reads:

Each owner of property in the Subdivision shall be liable for a minimum maintenance charge of $7.50 per month for each lot owned, payable to the Port Adventure Property Owners Association, to be paid by the owners of each lot and same to be secured by a vendor's lien upon such lots. Such sum shall be paid at the time of purchase of a lot, and on the first day of each month thereafter to the association. Funds arising from said charge will be applied so far as is sufficient toward the payment of maintenance expenses or construction costs incurred for any or all of the following purposes; lighting, improving and maintaining the streets and right of ways, security devices or watchmen, garbage and trash collection, and doing any other things necessary or desirable in the opinion of said Board of Directors to keep the property neat and in good order and which is considers of general benefit to the owners or occupants of the Subdivision. It shall be understood that the Judgment of said Association in expenditure of said funds shall be final, so long as such judgment is exercised in good faith. All conveyance of lots shall be subject to such maintenance charge, and by acceptance of his deed of contract for deed, each purchaser consents and acknowledges that said Association shall have no obligation to furnish maintenance, or do any other things described in this description other than the Maintenance Funds.

Paragraph 25, subsection (a) was amended to read:

Each owner of property in the Subdivision, Section 8, shall be liable for a minimum maintenance charge of $7.50 per month for the first two (2) lots owned, or any lots that have a house or any residence. This fee will decrease to $4.00 per month for the next eighteen (18) lots owned by same purchaser, with the payment schedule resetting after 20 lots owned by said purchaser, payable to the Port Adventure Property Owners Association, to be paid by the owners of each lot and same to be secured by a vendor's lien upon such lots. Such sum shall be paid at the time of purchase of a lot, and on the first day of each month thereafter to the association. Funds arising from said charge will be applied so far as is sufficient toward the payment of maintenance expenses or construction costs incurred for any or all of the following purposes; lighting, improving and maintaining the streets and right of ways, security devices or watchmen, garbage and trash collection, and doing any other things necessary or desirable in the opinion of said Board of Directors to keep the property neat and in good order and which is considers of general benefit to the owners or occupants of the Subdivision. It shall be understood that the judgment of said Association in expenditure of said funds shall be final, so long as such judgment is exercised in good faith. All conveyance of lots shall be subject to such maintenance charge, and by acceptance of his deed of contract for deed, each purchaser consents and acknowledges that said Association shall have no obligation to furnish maintenance, or do any other things described in this description other than the Maintenance Funds.

Paragraph 25 Subsection (F) originally reads:

Maintenance fees not paid by January 31 will be charged a collection fee of $10 per month per lot, or as maybe otherwise established by the Board of Directors by resolution dually adopted. Current maintenance fee is $7.50 per lot per month.

Paragraph 25 Subsection (F) WAS REMOVED.
